

Why we founded Gospel for Life, and what we do

Why we do what we do: Our controlling vision is to see God glorified through the transformation of lives by the gospel. The good news is that Christ came into a spiritually dead and dying world in order to impart life and hope. Christ alone has the power to restore us to our created purpose—to know, worship, and enjoy our Creator.

Because of our passion to help the Church recover her N.T. mission, we founded Gospel for Life in 2005 as a non-profit corporation. The title, “Gospel for Life” is a kind of play on words, for the gospel gives eternal LIFE through Christ, and also is our source of strength and direction FOR the entirety of our lives. Thus, the good news is not merely our entrance into the Christian life, it continues to impart ongoing life and is “able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified” (Acts 20:32).

The thrust of our ministry is building up believers in their walk, and fortifying and equipping churches in disciple-making. The gospel is joined to the Great Commission. Our Savior’s final command is to go into the all the world and make disciples by baptizing them; and teaching them all the things which Christ has commanded (Mt 28:18-20).

How we do what we do: The ‘heart-beat’ of our ministry is personal mentoring through nurture, biblical instruction, and spiritual care. In a broader application, we assist local churches in how to better fulfill The Great Commission through seminars and workshops. This is through hands-on training in evangelistic outreach and by curriculum designed to keep the gospel central.

As founder and executive director, my week is typically occupied with men’s ministry and discipleship. By investing in faithful men who embrace the biblical vision for multiplication, we align ourselves with the Master’s plan for perpetuating His truth. That plan is: disciples making disciple-makers (2 Tim 2:2).

GFL provided a 'Power of Christian Worldview Evangelism' Conference in March

“Can we be confident that the Christian faith is more than a theology of preference and upbringing?” “How can we share our faith confidently in a pluralistic society?”

“How do we interact with fellow students, co-workers, neighbors and family when so often our views are dismissed as incompatible with our society?” GFL’s Worldview Evangelism Conference answers those questions. Our seminar is proactively preparing believers to confidently make a defense of the hope that is within them. Members of Grace Bible Church, Pleasant Hill, CA received training from Jay in Christian Apologetics.

Attendees learned how to respond to the prevailing winds of our culture from a sound, reasoned biblical worldview, and to rest in the power of the Spirit and the Word of Christ which will bring faith to all the Father has called to eternal life (Jn 6:37).

Jay dealt with pertinent topics such as: Deconstructing the Unbeliever’s Objections to the Gospel, and, Locating the Point of Contact between God’s Truth and the Unbeliever.

If you’d like Jay to present a ‘Power of Christian Worldview Evangelism’ conference in your church, please contact him at jaywegter@gmail.com

Please pray for:

- Please pray for Jay’s wife Michele as she goes through some critical cancer treatment procedures in March and April.
- Please pray for the men Jay is discipling, that they would grow spiritually, and reach a level of maturity in which they would be able to disciple others.
